

2.8

Nominative and Accusative

In the following sentences, underline the verbs, put Nom. above the nominatives, put Acc. above the accusatives, and put parentheses around any prepositional phrases. Then translate each sentence. The first three are done for you.

- | | |
|---|---|
| Nom. Acc. 1 amicus tablinum intrat. | The friend enters the study. |
| Nom. 2 servus (in atrio) laborat. | A slave is working in the atrium. |
| Nom. Nom. 3 Caecilius est pater. | Caecilius is the father. |
| 4 Caecilius amicum salutatur. | <hr/> |
| 5 Quintus est filius. | <hr/> |
| 6 coquus in culinā coquit. | <hr/> |
| 7 coquus culinam intrat. | <hr/> |
| 8 Metella amicum vocat. | <hr/> |
| 9 amicum Metella vocat. | <hr/> |
| 10 coquus cibum gustat. | <hr/> |

Nom. Acc.
Metella Grumionem laudat.

